DINOSAUR

Raaaaaawr!

The dinosaur chases the news anchor and cameraman. They run all over until the dinosaur trips and gets a mouthful of moon cheese. He likes it and starts chowing down.

The taxi drops the tourists off beside the dinosaur. They pay the driver and start pushing the fat dinosaur back to the ship.

However, he's so chubby that he barely fits. They try to get in, too, but it's too tight. Finally, they open the dinosaur's mouth and jump in.

INT. DINOSAUR'S STOMACH

There's a bunch of cheese and a smaller dinosaur. The tourists start banging around, trying to find the ignition button.

INT. SPACESHIP

The dinosaur reacts unfavorably to having his insides prodded and punched.

INT. DINOSAUR'S STOMACH

Finally, they find the right spot.

OUTER SPACE

The spaceship zips back through space.

INT. DINOSAUR'S STOMACH

The aliens and other dinosaur are thrown around, but they bounce off of the cheese.

EXT. PRIMORDIAL JUNGLE - SUNSET

The spaceship lands and the dinosaur pops out, collapsing on his stomach.

The tourist aliens and other dinosaur burst out of his mouth. The tourists shake off the dino spit, climb back aboard their space ship, and take off.

The other dinosaur takes one look at the T. rex and runs away.

The dinosaur manages to get to his feet as the moon comes out. He reaches towards it with his tiny arms, but to no avail.
